

Ulkatcho

BOX 3430, ANAHIM LAKE, B.C. CANADA V0L 1C0
PHONE 250-742-3260
FAX 250-742-3411

Employment Opportunity

The Ulkatcho First nation is looking for a coordinator to lead in the implementation of a program of healing in response to the impact of the Indian Residential School system on indigenous children and families.

The Indian Residential School services Response Coordinator will:

- Attend all UFN working group committee meetings
- Be a member of the UFN working group
- Review and seek information on recovery programs and funding sources
- Work in collaboration with all stakeholders.
- Implement action items
- Adhere to a strict code of confidentiality and respect for community culture and traditions

The Indian Residential School Services Response Coordinator will facilitate support services to all UFN members. These services will include:

- Trauma informed supports and referrals
- Traditional supports
- Provide information on federal programs and services offered in response to this crisis
- Traditional responses to crisis support

The work may include on call and after-hours response in helping members access resources such as therapists and crisis line support. The coordinator will also perform other duties as assigned by the UFN working group.

Education and Work Experience:

Extensive knowledge of community mental health programs and services as well as knowledge of provincially and federally offered supports and services. The applicant should be knowledgeable with computers and be able to work independently. The applicant will be responsible for the implementation of the UFN goals and mandate and needs to be able to write and submit reports. Applicant must also demonstrate a working knowledge of mental health services available to indigenous families and communities.

Other Requirements:

- Class 5 drivers license
- Reliable vehicle
- Ability to travel on short notice
- Criminal Record check

The preferred applicant will be of Aboriginal Ancestry and be a member of the Ulkatcho community.

Application process; drop your resume off at the band office or email it to hr@ulkatcho.ca if emailing, put Indian Residential School services Response Coordinator in the subject line of the email.

Position open until filled.

Note: Pursuant to Sec 41 (1) of the BC Human Rights Code, preference may be given to applicants of Aboriginal Ancestry.